

SLTBR 32nd Annual
Meeting May 19th – 21st,
2021

SLTBR
Society for Light Treatment and Biological Rhythms

32nd Annual Meeting of the Society for Light Treatment and Biological Rhythms (SLTBR). Photoreception, Lighting and Health.
May 19th-21st, virtual

Please find below the program.

Wednesday, May 19 th , 2021
CEST	EDT
19:00-19:10	13:00-13:10	Check-in
19:10-19:20	13:10-13:20	Marijke Gordijn, PhD, Groningen, the Netherlands Welcome address from the SLTBR president
19:20 - 19:50	13:20-13:50	Keynote: Rob Lucas, PhD, Manchester UK 'What are the characteristics of healthy light'
19:50-20:30	13:50-14:30	Oral Session I & II Chairs: Jan de Zeeuw, Berlin DE & Mirjam Münch, Wellington NZ Josh W Mouland, Manchester UK: Encoding brightness for the clock Rafael Lazar, Basel CH: Pupillary Regulation of Melanopic Irradiance in Natural Scenes Isabel Schoellhorn, Basel CH: Controlling melanopic irradiance in evening display light: Influence on alertness and melatonin without affecting visual appearance Marta Benedetti, Lausanne CH: Automated control of realistic office lighting advances melatonin phase and peripheral heat loss prior bedtime Renske Lok, Stanford USA: Gold, silver or bronze: time of day can make the difference
20:30-21:30	14:30-15:30	Virtual Apéro in different breakout rooms

SLTBR 32nd Annual
Meeting May 19th – 21st,
2021

Thursday, May 20th, 2021

CEST	EDT
14:00-15:40	08:00-09:40	CME Training Course in Chronobiology Chairs: Corrado Garbazza, Basel CH & Konstantin Danilenko, Novosibirsk RU Open to all participants
14:00-14:20	08:00-08:20	Victoria Revell (PhD), Surrey, UK. 'Chronobiology in the Real World: The Impact of Internal Timing on Health, Performance and Well-Being.'
14:20-14:40	08:20-08:40	Greg Schwartz (PhD), Northwestern University, Chicago, U.S.A. 'Retinal computation.'
14:40-15:00	08:40-09:00	Martin Rutter (PhD), Manchester, UK. 'Genetic variants influencing sleep and chronotype: Clinical and biological insights from the UK Biobank.'
15:00-15:20	09:00-09:20	John Gottlieb (MD), Northwestern University, Feinberg School of Medicine, Chicago, U.S.A. 'The Chronotherapeutic Treatment of Bipolar Disorder- A Systematic Review and Practice Recommendations.'
15:20-15:40	09:20-09:40	Panel discussion and coffee break

SLTBR 32nd Annual
Meeting May 19th – 21st,
2021

Thursday, May 20th, 2021.

CEST	EDT
15:40-17:00	9:40-11:00	SYMPOSIUM 1: Photoreception, the Brain and Mood Chairs: Nina Milosavljevic, Manchester UK & Katerina Cervena, Prague CZ
15:40-16:00	9:40-10:00	Diego Fernandez (PhD), National Institute of Mental Health, NIH, Baltimore, U.S.A. 'Direct Effects of Light Over Circadian Control of Behavior.'
16:00-16:20	10:00-10:20	Timothy Brown (PhD), Manchester, UK. 'Out of the blue: twilight colours are associated with reduced circadian light responses.'
16:20-16:40	10:20-10:40	Chaoran Ren (PhD), Guangdong-Hongkong-Macau Institute of CNS Regeneration, Jinan University, Guangzhou, China. 'A visual circuit for the spatial-memory-promoting effects of light treatment.'
16:40-17:00	10:40-11:00	Panel discussion and coffee Break
		Oral Session III Chair: Kathryn Roecklein, Pittsburgh USA
17:00- 17:20	11:00-11:20	Daniëlle Starreveld, Amsterdam NL: Light therapy as a treatment for cancer-related fatigue Denis Gubin, Tyumen RU: Arctic project on human-centric lighting and its effects on circadian, sleep, and well-being
17:20-18:40	11:20-12:40	SYMPOSIUM 2: Light & Health - Improving Patient Outcomes in the Hospital. Chairs: Katharina Wulff, Umea, SE & Lenka Maierova, Prague CZ
17:20 – 17:40	11:20-11:40	Mirjam Münch (PhD), Massey University, Wellington, New Zealand. 'Light and Sleep Quality in Hospitalized Patients.'
17:40 – 18:00	11:40-12:00	Claudia Spies (MD), Charité University Medicine Berlin, Berlin, Germany. 'Innovative Measures to Reduce Delirium and Improve Sleep in the ICU.'
18:00-18:20	12:00-12:20	Anders Sode West (MD, PhD), Copenhagen University Hospital, Copenhagen, Denmark. 'The Effect of Naturalistic Light on Post-Stroke Complications in Stroke Patients Admitted for Rehabilitation.'
18:20-18:40	12:20-12:40	Panel discussion and coffee break

SLTBR 32nd Annual
Meeting May 19th – 21st,
2021

		Friday, May 21 st , 2021
CEST	EDT
		Sponsor symposium Seoul Semiconductor Chairs: t.b.d. Oliver Stefani, Basel CH: 'Effects of changing colour temperature and illuminance of LED lighting on physiology (melatonin, skin temperature and sleep)' 2nd speaker t.b.d.
15:00-15:30	09:00-09:30
15:30-16:50	09:30-11:50	SYMPOSIUM 3: Chronotherapy, Sleep and Mood. Chairs: John Gottlieb, Chicago, USA & Michael Terman, New York USA
15:30-15:50	09:30-09:50	Thomas Erren (PhD), University Clinic Cologne, Germany. 'Disturbed circadian biology at work and play & time for Zeitgeber alignment.'
15:50-16:10	09:50-10:10	Aarti Jagannath (PhD), University of Oxford, United Kingdom. 'Targeting adenosine receptors for chronotherapy.'
16:10-16:30	10:10-10:30	Anne Skeldon (PhD), Surrey, UK. 'Light, sleep and circadian rhythms: Using a mathematical model to design personalised light interventions'
16:30-16:50	10:30-10:50	Panel discussion and coffee Break
		Oral session IV Chair: Klaus Martiny, Copenhagen DK
16:50-17:15	10:50-11:15	Elise McGlashen, Melbourne AU: Circadian light sensitivity in the context of major depression Jan Frieder Harmsen, Maastricht NL: Shining light on substrate metabolism, energy expenditure and thermoregulation of metabolically compromised individuals Robert Levitan, Toronto CA: Dietary Intakes in Pregnant Women with and Without a History of SAD
17:15-18:00	11:15-12:00	Young Investigators meeting. Renske Lok Bea Bano Otolora	Hands-on Clinical Workshop on Light Therapy for Mood and Sleep Problems. Dorothy Sit Sophie Faulkner.
